U.S. DRY BEAN EXPORTS VALUED AT $34.2 MILLION IN 1971-72

U.S. exports of U.S. dry edible beans in the marketing year ending August 1972 amounted to 2,810,000 hundredweight valued at $34.2 million, down from the previous year's total of 3,273,000 hundredweight, valued at $34.7 million. Navy bean shipments decreased to 960,547 hundredweight, from 1,329,903 in 1970-71 and the record of 1,828,376 in 1969-70. Exports to the United Kingdom, major importer of navies, slipped to 634,504 hundredweight, the lowest in more than 10 years. Shipments to the Netherlands more than doubled, thereby boosting the European Community total to 1,617,300 against 1,470,000 in 1970-71. Total navy shipments were valued at $11.1 million, compared with $12.9 million the previous year.

Exports of Great Northerns increased 73.3 percent to 617,402 hundredweight. France and Algeria were the major importers, receiving 70 percent of total shipments. Exports of large limas and "other" white beans increased, while those of small limas decreased to less than half of the 1970-71 total. Japan's imports of these beans were only 49,084 hundredweight, compared with 197,243 in the previous year.

Red kidney shipments of 179,106 hundredweight were about the same as in 1970-71, with French West Indies, Panama, Jamaica, and Colombia receiving the bulk of the total.

The sharp decrease of pinto exports to Mexico accounted for the low total of 270,193 hundredweight against 410,698 in 1970-71. Black bean shipments, 78 percent of which went to Venezuela, dropped to a record low of 139,731 hundredweight, while "other" colored beans were about 10 percent higher; seed bean shipments amounted to 142,367 hundredweight, compared with 153,151 in 1970-71. France, Canada, and the United Kingdom were the major markets for seed.

Exports of beans for relief or charity dwindled to only 17,746 hundredweight.
